

A guide to the Industry List process

Australian Government
Australian Institute of Family Studies
Child Family Community Australia

The Industry List will support FaC service providers to plan and implement programs, evaluate outcomes, and to share the results with others. This will help create an evidence-based and effective service system for children and families.

➤ More information available on the CFCA website: <www.aifs.gov.au/cfca/expert-panel-project>